MEDICARE AND MEDICAID CAN WORK TOGETHER

-- even though they're not the same.

MEDICARE PAYS PART -- NOT ALL --

of hospital and other health care expenses for people who are insured. For example:

HOSPITAL INSURANCE

pays covered inpatient hospital costs during the first 60 days, except for the first $492* in each benefit period. (A benefit period begins on the first day that the person receives inpatient services, and it ends when the person has been out of the hospital or skilled nursing facility for 60 days in a row.)

MEDICAL INSURANCE

generally pays 80% of approved medical charges, except for the first $75 in each calendar year

HOSPITAL COSTS
INPATIENT	DATE	CHARGE
TELEPHONE	DATE	CHARGE
PHYSICIAN	DATE	CHARGE
TOTAL		$ 5658.00

MEDICARE HOSPITAL INSURANCE
HOSPITAL COST	$ 5658.00
MEDICARE	$ 166.00
BALANCE	$ 492.00

MEDICAID CAN PAY WHAT MEDICARE DOES NOT

If you qualify for both programs, Medicaid can pick up where Medicare leaves off. For instance, Medicaid can pay:

- the first $492* of inpatient hospital costs in each benefit period
- the first $75 per year of approved medical charges
- the remaining 20% of approved medical charges not covered by Medicare
- In some states, Medicaid will pay the Medicare beneficiary's medical insurance premium (currently $15.50 per month).

*through 12/31/86

HOW MANY PEOPLE

does each program help

Millions! Here are the details:

MEDICARE PROTECTS MORE THAN 11% OF THE U.S. POPULATION

-- and that's a lot of people.

- 30 million people are covered by Medicare Hospital Insurance.
- 29 million are also enrolled in the Medicare Medical Insurance program.
- Medicare alone will pay medical bills for nearly 18½ million people during this year.

MEDICAID HELPED NEARLY 22 MILLION PEOPLE LAST YEAR

Medicaid paid medical bills for people who were 65 or older, blind, disabled, under 21, or members of families with dependent children.

MEDICARE AND MEDICAID REALLY BENEFIT EVERYBODY

Medicare and Medicaid encourage the availability and efficient delivery of quality health-care services throughout the U.S. -- and that helps everyone!

BOTH MEDICARE AND MEDICAID:

- INSIST on high standards in health-care facilities and services
- SUPPORT the development of needed services
- ENCOURAGE innovation in health-care delivery
- REQUIRE a review of care
- PROMOTE cost-saving measures that won't jeopardize the quality of care.

IN ADDITION, MEDICAID:

- REQUIRES that medical services be available to all eligible people in a state
- EMPLOYS AND TRAINS local people as community health workers.

HOW MEDICARE AND

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT, INDIVIDUALS AND EMPLOYERS FINANCE MEDICARE.

More specifically:

SOCIAL SECURITY PAYROLL CONTRIBUTIONS

from people currently working and matching contributions from their employers are put into a trust fund, to pay for Medicare Hospital Insurance.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND THE PERSON WHO'S INSURED

pay for Medicare Medical Insurance. The government pays about 75% of the costs. The person covered by the insurance pays a monthly premium of $15.50.* (Medicaid can pay this premium for eligible people.)

*through 12/31/86

MEDICAID ARE FINANCED

FEDERAL AND STATE GOVERNMENTS FINANCE MEDICAID.

(Money for Medicaid comes from federal, state and local taxes.)

- The federal government contributes 50-78% of the health care costs for needy and low income people who are eligible.
- The actual percentage contributed by the federal government depends on the state's per capita income. The lower the income, the higher the percentage of aid.
- Individual states pay the remainder of the costs for their programs, with help from local governments.
